

March 26, 2023 The Endometriosis Summit's Patient and Practitioner Town Meeting
The Nicholson Center

Our Town Meeting is designed to gather the endometriosis community to change the narrative of endometriosis. For those who have the disease, those who treat the disease, and those who love and support people with endometriosis this is the place to be a societal disruptor. Unite our voices. Come one, come all and drive endometriosis forward.

800am Doors Open

830 Welcome Address

840 Disturbing the patriarchy: Activism, Social Movements, Menstruation and Endometriosis
*Dr Chris Bobel, PhD

915 Keynote Address: Driving Endometriosis Forward: Endometriosis Transcends Politics
*Jillian Gilcrest, State Representative, Connecticut House of Representatives

Panel to Follow

1025 Break

1030 Panel 1: Surgery and Endometriosis

1125 The Burden of Adenomyosis

1140 Panel 2: Making Decisions: Planning through endometriosis from Diagnosis to Recovery to living well with the disease

1230 Lunch

100 Breakouts

Room 1: Fertility and Miscarriage Support NOT AVAILABLE VIRTUALLY

Room 2: Beyond Surgery discussions on Coping with Pain, Pros and Cons of Gabapentin, Hot Packs and Your Nerves, Vulvodynia and more

205-250 The Braverman Memorial Lecture: Management of Endometriomas *Dr Charles Miller

Panel to follow

250-350 Gaslighting and Endometriosis lead by Researcher Eileen Holowka with Dr. Wendy Bingham PT DPT, Ty Manley, Dr Malcolm Mackenzie and Kristina Kasparian

350-450 Leg pain and Endometriosis

ALL PROGRAMS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE